

The State of Texas } In the Commissioner's
County of Hays } Court of said County
November Term, 1881.

To the Hon. Commissioners Court, of said County:

E. J. Tyson, who is a resident citizen of Hays County, respectfully represents, that she is the widow of William S. Tyson, deceased; that she was married to said Tyson on the 11th day of December A.D., 1850; that she and her deceased husband were citizens of Hays County on the 2^d day of September A.D., 1861, at which date said William S. Tyson enlisted, as such citizen in the military service of this State and of the Confederate States in the late war between the States of the United States as a soldier in Company D. of the 5th Regiment of Texas Mounted Volunteers; and while engaged in such military service, by reason of wounds received while in actual service, was killed at the battle of Val Verde on the 20th day of February A.D., 1862, and that she, the said E. J. Tyson, has not since married, but has remained a widow, and is now a citizen of this State; and that she has not property of the value of one thousand dollars; and that she is therefore entitled to a land certificate for twelve hundred and eighty acres of land, under and by virtue of an Act of the 17th Legislature of the State of Texas, Chapter 106 page 122
